

ESANS' 2nd Annual Construction & Demolition Symposium: "THINKING GREEN"

April 22, 2010, Marriott Halifax Hotel

AGENDA

8:15 | 9:00 Registration and Networking

9:00 | 9:15 Welcoming Remarks from ESANS

9:15 | 10:15 Leadership In Energy & Environmental Design (LEED): Overview and ABCs & LEED in Restoration & Construction

Presenter: Keith Robertson, M. Arch, NSAA, on behalf of the Canada Green Building Council Atlantic Chapter

- General overview of LEED; certification
- Application to construction/deconstruction and restoration work

10:15 | 10:30 Networking Coffee Break

10:30 | 11:30 Implementing the 3Rs in Construction & Demolition

Presenter: Bob Kenney, Recycling Development Officer, Nova Scotia Environment; Sherry Dillam, Halifax Regional Municipality

- History of C&D debris generation and management in Nova Scotia and current approach
- New provincial goals and Strategy Renewal Process

11:30 | 1:00 Networking Lunch

1:00 | 2:00 Regulatory Overview

Presenter: Marc Dunning, P.Eng.,LL.B, Wickwire Holm

- Municipal, provincial and federal jurisdictions in demolition and hazardous materials
- Addressing multi-jurisdictional issues
- Overview of application process and permit requirements

2:00 | 2:15 Networking Coffee Break

2:15 | 3:30 Discussion: Establishing consistency in identification, abatement and disposal of hazardous materials

Panel: Matthew Brufatto, Hazardous Materials Specialist, Nova Scotia Environment ; Kim Strong, President, Maritime Testing (1985) Ltd.; Tim Soley, Contractor

Open discussion on current industry/government approach; how to achieve consistency; specific focus on asbestos (plaster; non-friables) and lead paint

3:30 | 4:00 Closing Remarks

